About the State

While his trial for breach of the peace was being held in Pittsfield Tuesday, Charles Doubleday of that town received the frequent advice of his counsel, who remained in Rutland, by telephone.

The health board of Rutland is making a thorough investigation of public buildings in that city in regard to having proper fire protection. Prof. J. W.
Votey, sanitary engineer of the state board of health, and Dr. C. E. Ball are going over all the public buildings from top to bottom.

Fred Vogel of Poultney was injured Tuesday in a peculiar manner, while at work in the Broughton saw mill. He was standing near a large pile of boards when they suddenly fell over onto him, breaking his leg just below the knee, and cutting away the flesh and bone of his head. It is thought that the injury was caused by the pile of boards thrusting into the roof of the mill.

John A. Stockwell, of Manchester Depot, fell from a load of wood Tuesday, fracturing his skull and dying shortly afterward. He was hauling the wood for his brother-in-law, B. M. Eldred, and when near E. S. Pike's place in Sunderland, the sleigh tipped over, precipitating the wood and Stockwell into the road. He was 31 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.

Rev. Delano Perry, a supernumerary minister of the Troy conference of the Methodist church, well known in Vermont, died at his home in Gloverville, N. Y., Sunday from a stroke of apoplexy. He was 66 years old and had been a minister for 30 years. While in Vermont he held pastorates in Monkton, Mendon, Lincoln, Timbuctoo and Danbury Corners, Arlington and Sandgate, Wells and East Wells, and East Pittsfield.

To get the children of the schools into the habit of saving money and having a bank account of their own, arrangements have been made so that the teachers of the different grades of the public schools at West Rutland will, on Friday mornings, receive from any who wish to begin to save whatever amount they have, and when the amounts of any one child have reached one dollar, an account will be opened in the child's name. Last year this movement was started and there were eight accounts opened which aggregated nearly $25 during the year.

The reviving interest in orcharding is bearing fruit through the planting of a 10-acre tract at the Downer state farm at Sharon, under the auspices of the agricultural department and the special care of Professor Cummings. It is understood that apples will be the subject of this experiment and the outcome will be watched with much interest by orchardists generally. Incidentally the question of the damage done from deer will come under consideration. Much damage has been done to private orchards there, deer in droves of 20 to 30 being common.

Mrs. Octavia Carpenter, who had been falling for many years, passed peacefully away at her home April 3, of heart failure. All that loving hands could do was done to prolong her days, but death came to claim its own. Funeral services will be held Sunday at the home, Rev. L. F. Portney of Plainfield officiating. Octavia Sanford was born in Manchester, April 5, 1832, and was married to James Howard Carpenter October 27, 1851. Four children were born to them, three of whom are living, Oliver and Homer of Marshfield and Mrs.
Cora Woodbury of Lisbon, N. H. She also leaves, to mourn her loss, Mrs. Jay Cook, of Northampton, Mass., whom she reared from childhood; also three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, one half-brother and a host of friends. Her heartily hands lie crossed, as usually, as a maid, upon her breast, showing marks of toil. She worked, laughed, loved and suffered in her time and now rests peacefully with upturned face whose looks belle all struggle in the past. We mourn for her and extend our sympathy as a community to the bereaved ones, feeling the truth of the poet's verses: God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly
What he has given.
They live on earth in thought and deed
As in heaven.
